

A Question of Loyalties

Canada: A People's History

“Great numbers of Canadians...are determined to join us whenever we appear in the Country with a force to support them.”

- Benedict Arnold

Why would Canadians join the Americans in their Revolution?

How might Canada be different today if Quebec had joined or fallen to the Americans?

A Question of Loyalties (1775-1815)

1. Who was selling revolutionary ideas to the people?
2. Who attacked the British?
3. Who was a great hero but most despised traitor?
4. Who became dominant in Canada?
5. How did the Canadians win?

The World Turned Upside Down

6. Who were the 'Loyalists'?
7. How were the British able to get the Mohawk and many other tribes to fight on their side?

Exile

8. Why did many African Americans flee to Canada near the end of the American Revolutionary War?
9. Why did the Loyalists flee the United States after the war?