

Responsible Government

It's been argued that the War of 1812 was when Canadians fought for our version of freedom and liberty, but how is Canadian freedom and liberty different than what was seen in the United States?

Constitutional Act, 1791

1. What makes this form of government representative but not responsible?

Constitutional Act, 1791

It was _____, but not _____.

- Created _____

- Each colony was given an _____.
- The appointed _____ and his _____ had _____ power over the elected assemblies.

Appointed Councils

- Council membership was _____ by _____.
- They only allowed _____ that didn't threaten their _____.
- Became known as the _____ and the _____.

The War of 1812

- True Canadians opposed the _____ ideas of _____ and _____ government.
- The elite felt that because they _____ the _____ of Canada in the War of 1812, they should _____ to _____.
- Those promoting _____ were labeled as _____ and _____.

Rebellion: Lower Canada

- In _____, _____ published his _____ which criticized the ruling _____.
- Economic hardship led to a clash between _____ in the _____ and _____ in the _____ in November 1837.
- The _____ was quickly crushed and _____ was forced to _____ to the _____.

Rebellion: Upper Canada

- Following the 1828 election, William Lyon Mackenzie assumed _____ of the _____ reform movement.
- _____ wanted an _____.
- Took up arms after _____ about the _____ in _____.
- Clash with _____ troops in December _____ crushed the _____ and _____ fled to the _____.

Act of Union

- Lord Durham was sent to Canada to propose solutions. He created the _____, though all of his _____ were _____.
- _____, 1840
 - _____ Upper and Lower Canada
 - No _____ but two party leaders.
 - Capital of the united province of Canada _____ between _____ and _____.